ALL CONCERTS TAKE PLACE AT THE COURT OF THE WROCLAW ARSENAL

The 26th Jan Stanienda Chamber Music Festival "Arsenal Nights" will begin on Friday, June 30th, and will last until Sunday, July 9th. Six wonderful "Nights" are ahead of us!

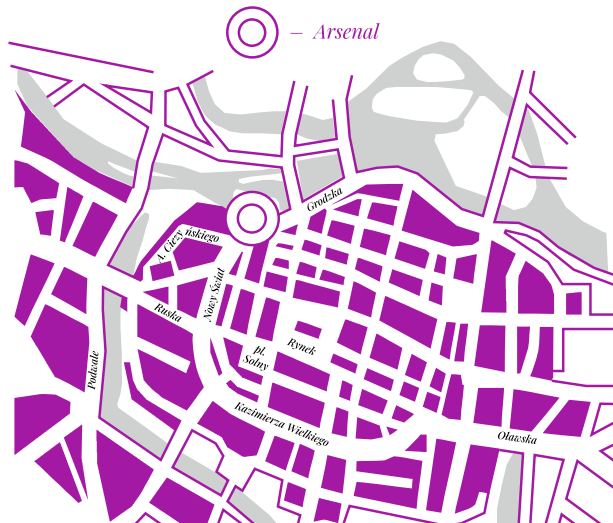

As always, the "Arsenal Nights" lure audiences with an array of great soloists and a very stylistically diverse repertoire. Classics sit alongside ambitious entertainment. The common denominator remains chamber music in its broadest sense, resounding in the charming courtyard of the historic Arsenal. The inauguration of the Festival (Friday, 30 June) will feature Stanisław Soyka accompanied by the Grott Orchestra in a programme entitled "Soul".

The entire Festival is traditionally hosted by the Wratislavia Orchestra, which will perform two diverse programmes – the first, filled with Astor Piazzolla's and Antonio Vivaldi's famous Seasons, will be lead by the excellent violinist Roksana Kwaśnikowska (Friday, 7 July), and the next, for the Festival's finale, conducted by Daniel Stabrawa, featuring pianist Hinrich Alpers (Sunday, 9 July).

There will be an exceptional concert with a performance by Wojciech Niedziółka, the highest qualified Polish participant at the last Wieniawski Competition in Poznań (Saturday, 1 July) and the world premiere of a work by Mikołaj Majkusiak juxtaposed with an absolute hit: "The Soldier's Tale" by Igor Stravinsky, featuring a pleiad of great musicians and Robert Gónera as narrator (Sunday, 2 July).

The Festival will also feature a presentation of the extraordinary "Fado" project (Saturday, 8 July) by Bastarda and João de Sousa (guitar, vocals), a Portuguese living in Poland.

See you at the concerts!
